

TES ADVERT

Subject Leader of Drama
Hartland International School
Dubai
Start date: September 2018

Hartland International School opened in September 2015 and is rapidly developing a reputation for excellence in learning and teaching. We provide the best possible education for every child in our care and import the very best practices from independent schools around the globe. We combine a unique blend of academic challenge, enrichment opportunities and pastoral support to target excellence and create a values based community of teachers, children and parents.

Located in the heart of Dubai, in a developing residential community, Hartland's unique vantage point is the iconic landmark of the Burj Khalifa, the Dubai Mall and Downtown Business area of the city. The school currently operates from Foundation Stage to Year 8 and anticipates natural year on year growth in the secondary section in the coming years. We offer enhanced National Curriculum for England and plan to offer GCSE's / IGCSE's, 'A' Levels and the International Baccalaureate Diploma.

At this time, we are looking to appoint an exceptional Subject Leader of Drama. Applications are invited from practitioners who are passionate and forward thinking and who will thrive in a vibrant learning environment. The post will involve specialist teaching in the upper Primary School, Years 5 and 6 and in the secondary school, Year 7 ultimately through to Year 13 of the Secondary phase. The school will open to Year 9 in 2018. The successful candidate will join an experienced and committed staff team and will operate in a school where facilities are of an exceptionally high standard with to ensure the highest quality of delivery. This includes a state of the art professional 650 seater Theatre and Drama and Dance studio. There is a very strong enrichment programme and the successful candidate will be expected to make a significant contribution to this and its future development across the Arts.

The successful candidate will:

- Hold a relevant degree and teaching qualification
- Have experience of teaching the National Curriculum for England whether that be in the UK or in an international setting
- Have a minimum 3 years' experience
- Be committed to the Hartland Values

As a member of the Hartland team, you will share in the responsibility for teaching, learning, enrichment and pastoral care and will be someone who can thrive on the challenge of growing a new school and community. The school is also committed to supporting and promoting continuing professional development.

In return, you will receive a competitive and attractive tax free salary, high quality fully furnished accommodation, private medical insurance, family allowances where applicable and annual airfare to home country with End of Service Gratuity.

Hartland International School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. Successful applicants will be subject to a police check.

How to Apply

The closing date for applications is Sunday 6 May 2018 with interviews taking place in London on Friday 11 May and in Dubai prior to that.

- Candidates wishing to apply should complete the application form and send it with a CV and covering letter to the HR Manager, Mrs Elizabeth Riley, at riley@hartlandinternational.com
Please include a recent photograph.
- Your application should contain the names, addresses, email addresses and telephone numbers of three professional referees and include your current line manager / Head of School.
- Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted