

Teacher of Media Studies, Dubai, United Arab Emirates

Hartland International School seeks to appoint an exceptional Teacher of Media Studies, joining the English team as the specialist lead for this subject area.

Our School

Hartland has established a reputation for excellence in learning, teaching and leadership in the region with a student body of just over 2200 students from nearly 110 nationalities. We are a truly unique and international community where a strong blend of academic challenge, enrichment opportunities and pastoral support for all, targets and inspires excellence. All that we do is underpinned by a values-based family community of teachers, children and parents providing the best possible education for every child in our care.

The Post

Applications are invited from suitably qualified individuals who are passionate and forward-thinking and who will thrive in the vibrant learning environment of Hartland. By being ambitious, not only for students but for yourself, you will help us maintain, refine and enhance a successful programme of study in this popular option subject by sharing in the responsibility for teaching, learning, enrichment and pastoral care. The successful candidate will also be expected to contribute to our unique and strong enrichment programme which ensures that learning and opportunity are diverse for all.

The successful candidate will:

- Hold a relevant degree and teaching qualification
- Have experience of teaching Media Studies, whether that be in the UK or in an international setting
- Have a minimum of three years' teaching experience
- Have experience of teaching GCSE and A Level Media Studies
- Have exceptional communication skills
- Be committed to the Hartland Values which can be found on our website

In return you will have the opportunity to work in a premium state-of-the-art modern school with a committed and dedicated staff. We have a pro-active approach to continuing professional, personal development and wellbeing, and the successful candidate will join a school where our values and our community are integral to our ethos. You will receive a competitive and attractive tax-free salary, high quality fully furnished accommodation, private medical insurance, annual airfare to home country and an 'End of Service Gratuity'.

Safeguarding Statement

Policies for safer recruitment are aligned with the recommendations of the International Task Force on Child Protection. At Hartland International School we hold ourselves to a high standard of effective practices in relation to child protection and we are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. We expect all staff and volunteers to share in this commitment. Successful applicants will be subject to various background checks including receipt of satisfactory references, proof of relevant qualifications, identification and police checks, including overseas checks.

The school is also committed to equality of opportunity and to the culture and principles of equity, diversity and inclusion.

How to Apply

The closing date for this position is 8 May 2026. Early applications are encouraged as we may interview on receipt of applications, prior to the closing deadline. Start date for this position is August 2026.

Candidates wishing to apply should complete the application form and upload it with a CV and covering letter to the HR Manager, Mrs Lurette Robertson. Please include a recent photograph. Shortlisted candidates will be asked to provide a video of them teaching unless they are UAE based, in which case they will be invited to teach a lesson in school.

Your application should include the names, addresses, email addresses and telephone numbers of three professional referees one of which must be your current Head of School. Applications will only be considered if they are complete and through the TES portal. Please do not email your application directly.

Please click on the apply button below to submit your application. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.